DETAILED ACTION

CLAIMS PRESENTED

Claims 7-10, 11-13, 55-56, 57-58, 95-96, 97-98 remain.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

As suggested by Applicant (in record within file history):

Claims 1-6, 14-54, 59-94, 99-122 have been cancelled.

FILE HISTORY

Along with the other claims, the first US Patent Office Action rejected these claims 7-10, 11-13, 55-56, 57-58, 95-96, 97-98 under 35 U.S.C. 102. These particular claims were rejected as being unpatentable over US Patent 5265164 (Matyas et al.). After a restriction and election, these claims 7-10, 11-13, 55-56, 57-58, 95-96, 97-98 remain pending.

Allowable Subject Matter

All pending claims are allowed. Claims 7-10, 11-13, 55-56, 57-58, 95-96, 97-98 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Applicant's arguments (which directly pointed out the particular features) overcome the prior art. Unlike the relied art of record (Matyas et al.), the claimed invention is directed to vouchers. The vouchers contain usage record. At the first device, any vouchers associated with the encrypted content is rendered unusable. Furthermore, as noted at pages 2-5 of the specification of this application, the claimed invention refers to the situation of controlled copying and moving of content between devices and domains.

An authorized device transfers content to another authorized device. The authorized device uses the content. Thus, the protected content is moved within the authorized domain. The claim language reflects these features. See, for illustration, pages 27-28 of the amendment of 11/3/2005. The prior art did not teach or suggest the particular features of the claims in the context of the other limitations of the claims.
